Experience

► Please complete all sections regardless of whether or not you attach a resume. Begin with your most recent experience. List all experience in the last 10 years, including U.S. military service. Give details on the work experience that you believe meets the minimum requirements for this position. If necessary, go back more than 10 years to demonstrate your qualifications. For each job worked, show actual time (number of hours per day or per week) spent in such experience. Also, list any volunteer experience that you believe helps you meet the requirements of the job for which you are applying.

Certification by Applicant

Read carefully before signing. I acknowledge that the California judicial branch is an “at-will” employer. This means that both the employer and employee have the right to terminate employment at any time, with or without notice and with or without cause. No one other than the Chief Justice has the authority to alter this arrangement to enter into an agreement for a specified period of time, or to make any agreement contrary to this policy. I understand that my misstatements made in this application and any attachments, or omission of material fact, will cause forfeiture on my part of all rights of employment with the California judicial branch. I also understand that if I do not have the minimum qualifications for this class, I will be removed from the position when this fact is determined. Unless otherwise noted, I authorize the investigation of all statements given in this application, including contacting former employers.
